FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONCOURSE REALTY GROUP RE-FOCUSES ITS ACTIVITIES TOWARDS ITS CORE STRENGTHS

January 2, 2007 (New York). Concourse Realty Group has re-focused some of its client's services towards the needs of its clients. Given the boom in real estate activities of the past year or so, many new clients have asked the firm to help them capitalize on the market, says Stephen P. Peca, Managing Director.

As a result, Concourse Realty Group ("CRG") offers a number of services ranging from advisory to fee development, to establishing equity investment funds to working on acquisitions and dispositions. While there is a perceived investment boom in the overall worldwide markets, markets are local and accordingly cyclical. As a result, CRG also offers workout services particularly to banks and securitization pools that may have assets that might have troubles. With the departure of two of the founding members at the end of 2006, CRG is clearly taking more of a development and investment focus in its businesses, says Peca, with several activities taking CRG more into international markets. There are still more changes to come through this year.

Concourse Realty Group is a boutique firm that provides advisory and investment services to U.S. and international real estate owners, investors and lenders with transaction, portfolio and corporate management needs, as well as, equity investment businesses.
