CONCOURSE REALTY GROUP MEMBER FEATURED IN NATIONAL REAL ESTATE INVESTOR ARTICLE

September 1, 2006 (New York). Managing Director, Stephen P. Peca, was featured today in National Real Estate Investor magazine in an article entitled, Changing Career Paths.

The article discussed how many people have changed or extended their careers by returning to school to learn about the various aspects of the real estate industry and how many change their career path to lead into the real estate industry. In the article, Mr. Peca stated, "Real estate is where there's money to be made. There are solid returns to be had, and people are starting to understand real estate in general and that it's not some strange investment vehicle". "It's a nice, comfortable, well-tested vehicle that has a relatively deep market profile," says Peca. The article also featured two of Mr. Peca's former students.

In commenting about the number of international students attending the university, “...some may stay in the U.S. for a couple of years and become a practitioner to gain experience, but ultimately many intend to take the techniques learned and enter into the commercial real estate industry in their respective countries”, said Mr. Peca.

The article can be read in its entirety by going to the National Real Estate Investor website at, www.nreionline.com.

Concourse Realty Group is a boutique advisory firm that provides advisory services to U.S. and international real estate owners, investors and lenders with transaction, portfolio and corporate management needs.
